

THE TEMPLERS WEEK 2024

“The Knights Templar or Order of the Temple was founded in 1128 during the Council of Troyes by Hugo Peyens and Geoffrey de Saint-Omer. Having played a key role during the Portuguese Reconquest in taking territory from the Muslims, settling it or defending it, the Order established itself as an influential institution in Portugal and an important partner of the Portuguese Crown. The Templars are closely linked to Tomar, its Castle and the Convent of Christ (1160), which became the Templar headquarters in Portuguese territory. Surrounded in 1190 in Tomar by the forces of the Almohad Caliphate under the command of Caliph Iacube Almançor, they managed to defend the Castle. Later, when the Knights Templar became part of the Order of Christ in 1312, they played a fundamental role in the expansion and discovery of new lands.”
